ANOTHER EXISTENCE—Schmaltz Brewing Co's. Back Beer.

BEER MUGS AS WEAPONS.
 Too much beer was the cause of a rough-and-tumble fight in the Fourth ward, at Belleaire, last night. Several of the roomers at a Bohemian boarding house became involved in an argument in which beer mugs were the favorite weapons. One man, name unpronounceable, was struck on the head and painfully wounded. He was taken to the lock-up, but was later released on bail.

A BOY STABBED.

Yesterday afternoon Carl Huddler, a twelve-year old boy, stabbed another boy, a few years older, Carl Harrington, a Linsly cadet. The boys were fighting and Harrington had Huddler down. The latter then pulled out a penknife, and cut Harrington in the groin, inflicting a severe wound. The warrant for Huddler's arrest was issued by Squire Rogers, before whom he will get a hearing this afternoon.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Architect Lohner's plans for the new Christian church, at Steubenville, have been accepted and local bidders are figuring on the contracts. The church will be a handsome building. In the same office are plans for a two and one-half story brick dwelling, for Adolph Knoke, the stone contractor, of Thirty-ninth street, and for four houses on McColl street, for W. J. Cotts, of city litigation fame.

BLIND MUSICIAN ENTERTAINS.

A large audience attended the piano recital given at Thomson M. E. church, for the benefit of the Epworth League chapter of the church last night, by Professor A. H. List, the blind musician, of Pittsburgh, and all were well pleased with the entertainment. Prof. List's recitations were well played, and much applauded. The second part of the program consisted of a lecture by Prof. List, entitled, "How the Blind See," which was quite interesting.

A LAMENTABLE CASE.

A Polish priest arrived in this city last evening, and being unable to speak English experienced difficulty in meeting his countrymen. He engaged a hack-driver, who took him to the Belmont mill, where several Poles recognized the priest, as one whom they were expecting. They greeted him cordially, until they discovered that his condition was not compatible with his clerical office, whereupon they refused to have further dealings with him.

The hackman then conveyed the priest to the city building, and a saloon-keeper on Market street who speaks Polish was sent for, and later agreed to keep the priest over night. The hackman was out his fare, but as the priest had a money order for $70 on his person, the debt will likely be settled to-day.

THE letter "R" don't have to figure in the month you drink Cook's Imperial Champagne in. It's extra dry and always good.

IN THE COURTS.

Sigmund Kapy to Serve Five Years in "Pen."

A STAY OF JUDGEMENT GIVEN

IN ORDER THAT COLONEL ARNETT MAY APPEAL TO THE HIGHER COURT—A STOCKHOLDER OF THE WOOD BROTHERS' PLANING MILL COMPANY ALLEGES CERTAIN STOCKHOLDERS ARE ACTING IN VIOLATION OF AN INJUNCTION. CRIMINAL COURT TERM CLOSES.

Yesterday in the criminal court, Judge Higgs on the bench, a number of important cases were acted upon and court adjourned for the term. The motion of Colonel Arnett on behalf of Sigmund Kapy, for a new trial, was overruled, and Kapy was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary. Colonel Arnett then asked for a stay of judgment for sixty days, during which he will prepare an appeal to the supreme court of appeals of the state. Kapy, it will be remembered, was convicted on the charge of having passed a bogus check for $40 on E. B. Carney, of the Hotel Windsor.

The motion of the attorneys of Louis Meyers for a new trial was acted upon favorably by the court. The court did not act on the motion of the attorneys of F. W. Reynolds, convicted on the charge of embezzlement, for a new trial and those decisions in this case will not be announced until the opening of the next term of the criminal court.

In the circuit court, an absolute divorce was granted Maude Hedricks, who is allowed to assume her maiden name, Maude McCulley.

Conrad Bremer's appointment as a deputy sheriff was approved. The case of Joseph D. Elson vs. J. A. Henry was dismissed, the parties having come to an agreement out of court. A divorce was granted to H. W. Stoehr from Kate Stoehr.

R. W. Kiley, a stockholder in the Wood Brothers' Planing Mill Company, the assignment of which last January, was recently set aside by an injunction, yesterday appeared in the circuit court, with petition asking that W. C. Gardener, Edward Wagner, Thomas W. Wood and Theodore Wagner be restrained from controlling the affairs of the company, which he alleges they attempted to do at a meeting held in the company's office on April 13, in direct violation of the order restraining them from assuming or continuing in control. The court issued a rule against the men named, as prayed for, and a hearing was set for April 23, at 9:30 a. m., before Judge Hervey.

SOCIETY.

A congenial gathering of the friends of the family assembled Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Mendel, on Twelfth street, in response to the invitations sent out by Miss Belle Mendel, who had thus planned a neat surprise for her mother, the occasion being an anniversary of Mrs. Mendel's birth. About twenty-five ladies were present, and the afternoon was pleasantly whiled away. Light refreshments were dispensed, and before leave-taking, all the guests expressed the hope that Mrs. Mendel might be spared many more years.

The Mount was Grateful.

The pupils of Mt. de Chantal academy were treated to music of high degree yesterday, through the courtesy of ladies connected with the Woman's Club concert of Thursday night. Mrs. Serena Swabacker went out, accompanied by Mrs. George B. Caldwell, Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. Marcus Baer, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, Miss McMurphy, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Leon Klee and Miss Carrie Baer. A fine programme was rendered, at which Miss McMurphy and Mrs. Hill played on the piano; Mrs. Flora Williams sang several songs. The entertainment was songs sung by Mrs. Swabacker. Her voice is a beautiful one of marvelous compass. The tone color was beautiful and her finish was that of an extreme. Her manner was bewitching.

Bidding on new Plans.

Bids are now being received by Architects Franzheim, Gieser & Paris, for the Country Club house, according to the revised plans, which call for a small building, and differing in other respects from the original. The bids will close next Wednesday.

A Great Store.

E. B. Potts' new store, at 1145 and 1147 Market street, was crowded with customers yesterday. It was attributable to the big bargains and variety of goods carried in the store. The stock of clothing is the best assorted in the city, and the prices are the lowest.

Caralini's Rye Whisky.

AMUSEMENTS.

After careful study and rehearsing, "The Players" are now prepared to present to their friends and the public in general to-day—matinee and night—at the Opera House, three of the best one-act comedies ever presented by this enterprising organization. They are fine and wholesome in every particular, and every line contains a laugh. Nothing more can be said in favor of this company, which is composed of Wheeling's choicest talent, and their appearance here to-day will be greeted by two large audiences. The triple bill comprises "A Woman's Word," "A Game of Cards" and "Lend Me Five Shillings." The latest bulletins from Washington will be read from the stage.

THE CIRCUS COMING.

The study of natural history is always interesting, and an opportunity to gain unlimited knowledge of the wonders of zoology will be presented on Wednesday, May 4, when the united attractions of the famous Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Immense menagerie will be seen. It has become quite common for shows to claim big menageries, and the display of wagons, made to appear like animal cages, on the streets in parade is calculated to and often does deceive the people, who are thus led to believe they are to see a creditable collection of animals. They find when too late that the "menagerie" was a fake and the circus generally a fraud and delusion. It is a relief to know that a real menagerie will be here, in fact, two of the biggest in the world, exhibiting the only rhinoceros, two Malay or saddle-back tigers, a full-grown hippopotamus, a school of seals and sea lions, double herds of elephants, ostriches, cassowary and emu, and enough rare, valuable and interesting animals other shows cannot afford to own, to stock a score of average shows. It was the pride of Adam Forepaugh to own the largest menagerie in America, and the Sells Brothers' Show was a close second in this regard.

WILSON COMEDY COMPANY.

"The Crimes of London" was on the boards at the Grand last night. It is one of the strongest plays in the repertoire of the Wilson Comedy Company, and it was received with many evidences of appreciation. The action depicts life in the great metropolis, particularly in the slums. The motescopic views, and the singing and dancing specialties, were applauded to the echo. This afternoon the company will present the drama in which Jefferson achieved a lasting fame, "Hip Van Winkle." The matinee prices are ten and twenty cents.
